ANZIIF ANNOUNCES NEW CHARITY PARTNER FOR UPCOMING SOUTH AUSTRALIAN CHARITY LUNCHEON

The Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance is proud to announce Youth Opportunities as the new charity partner for the 49th annual South Australian Charity Luncheon.

The highly renowned networking and community event will once again take place at the Adelaide Convention Centre, on Friday 13 May and will be MC'd by Former Port Adelaide football legend Tim Ginever.

"We are delighted to partner with Youth Opportunities Australia, an organisation that supports over 2,000 young South Australians each year by helping them build the skills, habits and confidence to lead themselves towards a successful life," says Prue Willsford.

The luncheon has been running for almost 50 years, and we look forward to bringing everybody together to connect with colleagues and peers to support such a worthy cause.

'Our partnership will help raise awareness of the challenges young people face, and hopefully mobilise the energy of great adults to help remove those barriers,' says Youth Opportunities CEO Erin Faehrmann.

At the lunch, Faehrmann will introduce insurance guests to a Youth Opportunities graduate.

'Our students' stories are testament to the very real and powerful benefit a young person will derive from having access to, and doing the work to successfully graduate from, a Youth Opportunities program.'

"I encourage South Australian professionals to make use of our early bird ticket sale and contribute to raising some much-needed funds to help Youth Opportunities continue to grow and deliver invaluable initiatives," added Willsford.
